Pass it on: 5 steps to creating a culture of giving in your family

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Robyn Schein,
Director of Family Philanthropy at The Minneapolis Foundation

Robyn Schein has been at the Foundation since 2006, her skills have been used to engage the next generation in giving, to facilitate inspiring workshops on intentional and focused philanthropy, and to help donors achieve their giving goals. Using her natural facilitation skills and the tools she learned as a certified 21/64 consultant on multi-generational giving, Robyn helps families bridge generational differences and make the most of their giving. Robyn received a B.A. in international studies from American University and a Master of Public Administration degree with a focus on nonprofit management from New York

University's Wagner Graduate School of Public Service. Prior to joining the Foundation, she worked at Orr Associates.

Join us for a free seminar. Pass it on: 5 steps to creating a culture of giving in your family.
